

Jeremy Kehler

It is my belief that I would make a good member of the CHES National Executive Committee due to my experience in the Manitoba Chapter Executive and National Committee chair roles. I have been able to help lead initiatives and bring ideas which have had positive impacts to all the CHES membership. Networking, relationship building and open dialogue have been goals that I strive to accomplish in the organization, both locally and throughout the country.